Giran Sales was founded in 2017 with the clear aim of satisfying the need for a reliable supply of materials in the industrial and naval sectors, as well as the importation and exportation of goods. Guided by our policy of continuous improvement, in addition to the desire and passion of a well-integrated, hard-working team, over time we have come to call on an ever-expanding range of suppliers, as well as be called on by clients who trust us to help them in their search.

Throughout the years, we have gained ourselves friends and clients as a result of the high level of responsibility and formality that we dedicate to our work, and we are focussed constantly on improving and adapting to the day-to-day changes both in the industry and around the world. We understand that our clients' time is money and as such we strive to help them in this sense by streamlining the buying and logistical processes.

"They call it luck, but it's consistency. They call it coincidence, but it's discipline. They call it genetics but it's sacrifice. They talk, you work hard."
